BOLD APPLICATION

Please respond to each question in a few sentences, as you would in an interview.

Why are you interested in being part of the BOLD Women’s Leadership Network?

Please describe the specific qualities and attributes that make you an ideal candidate for the BOLD Women’s Leadership Network.

We are seeking BOLD Scholars who have demonstrated leadership potential, creative and critical thinking skills, and a commitment to social change. Please provide one or more examples to show us how you have demonstrated these qualities.

What do you anticipate you will contribute to the BOLD program and cohort experience?

What do you hope to learn or develop through your participation in BOLD?

If selected as a BOLD Scholar, you will have the opportunity to pursue a BOLD service/leadership project in summer 2019. Please describe a project you would create, identifying the question/issue/problem you will address, the approach your project will take, and the project outcome(s) you foresee.

Please explain why the BOLD service/leadership project you hope to pursue is meaningful to you. How does it relate to your goals and future plans?

Interview Availability: Please list your availability on Monday, December 10, 2018, between 9am and 5pm. Finalist interviews will take place on this date.
