BOLD WOMEN’S LEADERSHIP NETWORK

Cohort 3 Application Outline

Introduction
The BOLD Women's Leadership Network is a pioneering program cultivating courageous leadership in young women during the college years and beyond. BOLD focuses on facilitating opportunities for women’s career development and networking through scholarship funding, programming, and engagement in service/leadership projects. Through a competitive process, a small group of Scholars will be selected to join the third cohort of UConn’s BOLD initiative. Selected students will receive substantial scholarship funding for their junior and senior years, as well as summer funding to support a self-directed service/leadership project during the summer of 2021. Selected Scholars must participate satisfactorily in BOLD events and meetings. For a detailed outline of obligations, responsibilities, and opportunities for BOLD Scholars please visit the website at ugradresearch.uconn.edu/bold/.

Please direct questions to Liza Boritz, Director of the BOLD Women’s Leadership Program at UConn. You can reach Liza at 860-486-4312 or liza.boritz@uconn.edu.
