Students applying for a SHARE award must have an identified faculty mentor and research project in order to be selected. This application is not complete until the accompanying Faculty Mentor application is also submitted.

Your faculty mentor gains access to their section of the SHARE application when you send him/her an invitation. You will need to complete the “Request a Recommendation” section of the application and enter your mentor’s name and email address in order to send the invitation.

Applicants are encouraged to initiate the recommendation request well ahead of the October 19, 2020 application deadline to give your faculty mentor time to complete their section of the SHARE application by the deadline.

Your faculty mentor cannot complete their section of the application until you have initiated your application and completed the recommendation request.
